

Now Showing

Black Mountain Center for the Arts:

Upper Gallery at BMCA Displays “Woodwork” – to May 21

Selected works of two men who left a lasting impression on the Warren Wilson community.

www.BlackMountainArts.org

Red House Studios & Gallery:

“Seasaon” Art Show & Sale– thru May 5th

Over 40 artists with a wide range of mediums. Our mountains have four distinct seasons – beauty and inspiration may be found in each and offer artists endless opportunities to express themselves. 310 West State St. Black Mtn.

Open Tues. - Sat 10am-5pm. Sun. 1-4pm. Closed Mondays.

May 15 -25

“Ten Days In May” – Opening reception May 15th 5-7pm w/wine and hors d’oeuvre $10

Benefit for the Black Mountain Counseling Center. Art exhibit exploring mental health.

OPEN: Sun.1-4, Tue – Wed & Fri– Sat. 10am-5pm (Closed Thurs.)

Art at The Monte Vista:

“Photography & Mixed Media” Features the work of SVFAL photographers and mixed media artists. Exhibit will delight your eye and stimulate your brain.

Flood Fine Art Gallery:

Art Exhibit – the point in between: the ART of PHIL KURZ – to June 3.

Paintings, drawings, comic strips, writings and assemblages by self-taught, D.C.-area artist Phil Kurz who was a prescient conduit for topics both emotionally personal and philosophically universal. Phil’s art ranges in style from graphic figures & illustrations to geometric & organic abstractions. Highly-intelligent, serious, honest & sensitive, the schizophrenia that plagued him also informed him. A percentage of sales of select works will go to the Unicef Safety in School Fund and the Asheville Southside Kitchen. Exhibition catalog available for sale.

Open 10am-6pm. Closed Wednesdays

850 Blue Ridge Rd. Unit A-13, Black Mountain (next to Veterans Park)

Bella Gallery:

Fine Art and Handcrafted Jewelry

112 A Cherry St. Black Mtn. www.bellagallerync.com 828-669-5190

Sarah Sunshine Pottery:

Open 2nd Saturday of month. Anytime by appointment

www.SarahSunshinePottery.com