

“the Little  that
TOWN ROCKS.”
Gallery & Museum Exhibits

In the Gallery – at Black Mountain Center for the Arts:

Until Nov. 1 - “The Need To Create”

More than 15 of Dan Howachyn's smaller, reasonably transportable works will be on display. Locals will recognize Howachyn from his work that brings character and style to the region, for his business Black Mountain Iron Works which he co-owns with wife Tekla, and for his participation in many community oriented events.

"I believe art should provide a component of beauty and be visually pleasing and connect to the viewer aesthetically, while evoking a deeper relationship to ourselves and our surroundings. I have always been drawn to our bond with nature and show the strong but beautiful connection between humanity, and the spirituality we share."

Hours: 10am-4pm Monday – Friday
